of Overseas Allowance.

Corrected up to January 41, the a-mount of Rs 150 each shown after
Messrs Mackintosh & Rolfe is styled Special Allowance. Possibly, this is Overseas Allowance. When & why the -change underwent the change,
is difficult to say.

On page 69 ibid are found two O.A's somehow apparently after the G.O of 19.2.35.

✓ The decision embodied in the Govt
Letter of 16.12.25 apparently covers the first two cases referred to. The Govt wants to know if the other cases can also be similarly dealt with.

If it was the intention of Govt to do, the Compti may be answered in the affirmative after consulting the Secy & Chief Secretaries.

3 Regarding the General ruling asked by the Compti on the scope of Overseas Allowance, it seems it is not proper to adopt the definition of

In Domestic Rules. The appointments of Senior Professors are mostly made by Contracts made at low and if the pay itself happens to be fixed high in consideration of allowance for overseas allowance, even if fixed in addition, cannot be fixed in 'Pay'. Each Case has to be considered on Merits.

The Rule will be informed very, of app.

As regards the definition, it will be fixed in order in consideration of the spirit of M.S.R. respectively

As under Financial Rules, overseas allowance is embodied as part of the pay, the same definition & conditions have to be followed if termed as such in respect to the professors also.
If however this expⁿ of 'Overseas' is not used but some other expⁿ like 'Special' all^y is used in respect of the all^y of any given under contract, then the question will have to be decided on the merits of each case or contract. So the necessity for introducing a new expⁿ is

At present, There is only one Case of Mr. Eagleton, Prof. of English (II class) who is in receipt of O.A. of Rs 100.

As Miss. Black does not Continue to be the Principal of the Maharani's Women's College, Bangalore, her case does not arise at present. The question of the filling up of the post of Principalship of this College is perhaps dealt with in CB.

In the other two Cases of Messrs. Mackintosh & Rollo, a Spl. allowance of Rs 150 is allowed to each professor.

There are no other Cases of officers in the Univ. who are now in receipt of O.A.

The question, which arises now, is whether the O.A. of Rs 100 allowed to Mr. Eagleton be reckoned for the calculation of his leave allowances & pension, as in the Case of Messrs. Mackintosh & Rollo.

The next point, for remark, is whether O.A. be treated as part of pay as per Fundamental Rule 9(21) referred to by the Compt.

No 274 GAD

32 LIS
OFFICE OF THE COMPTROLLER TO THE GOVERNMENT OF HIS HIGHNESS THE MAHARAJA OF MYSORE
FINANCIAL SECRETARY
Bangalore, dated 25th February 1940.

From

M. VIRARAJA URS, Esqr., B.A., B.L., Comptroller to the Government of
His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore, BANGALORE.

To

Rajasevaprakasha
A.N. Raghavachar Esq., M.A.,
Financial Secretary to the Government of Mysore, Bangalore.

Sir,

I have the honor to state that some of the Professors in the Mysore University are in receipt of Overseas Allowance of Rs.150/- and Rs.100/- per mensem. The term "Overseas Allowance" is not defined in the Mysore Service Regulations.

Under Fundamental Rule No.9(21) the Overseas Allowance which is granted to certain officers in consideration of their domicile is treated as part of their pay. The several First Class European Professors in the University were granted a special allowance of Rs.150/- per mensem which was treated as Personal Allowance counting for leave allowance and Pension Vide Govt. Order No.1519/CB 67-25 dated 16-12-1925.

In the last reorganisation order of the University, Overseas allowance of Rs.150/- and Rs.100/- are allowed to the 1st and 2nd Class European Professors vide Govt Order No.F1.6827-9/S&A 444-34-1 dated 19-2-35. The Special allowance of Rs.150/- per mensem originally sanctioned is obviously intended to be treated as Overseas Allowance in the later order. Consequently Overseas allowance has been taken into account so far for purposes of leave allowances and pension and travelling allowance following the Govt. Order of 16-12-25.

In the above circumstances, I request that suitable orders may kindly be caused to be issued defining the scope of the Overseas allowance of leave allowances, P. a + pension may be continued.
